Family Matters

New Members - The Jarvis Family

We are pleased to welcome Jason, Emily, Lincoln, and Peter Jarvis into the fellowship of our church family. They live at 129 Marguerita Avenue, Apartment Q, Santa Monica, CA 90402-1650.

Dear brothers and sisters,

As you may know, the University church celebrates its 40th anniversary beginning this Fall. The highlight of our anniversary celebration is a homecoming worship service in Firestone Field House followed by a pot-luck dinner on the meadow behind the tennis pavilion, both on October 17, 2010. We want to invite all former members of the University congregation to be with us that day. To get a good representation will require your help, however. If you remain in touch with any former member of the congregation, would you please supply me with the name and address (both surface and email) of the person or persons? I will be sure that they are invited to our celebration in October. The sooner we can get started on this task the better. Thanks for your help.

Dearest friends,

We are overjoyed and humbled by the invitation to join you in the great ministry of the University Church. Our time with you last month only confirmed the impressions we had formed from our interaction with the screening committee, staff and elders as a church family who is eager to serve Christ and the people he places in your lives. Your heart for Christ, love for students, concern for non-believers, and your hunger for truth is a living testament to the presence of the Spirit in your midst.

We are excited for the opportunity to minister alongside you as we serve one another and partner with God in the work he is already doing in the lives of our neighbors. I'm reminded of William Tyndale's great quote that, "The Church is the one institution that exists for those outside it." May we find greater ways and intentional ways to become Christ to those who are not in Christ for the love of Christ.

You are welcoming imperfect vessels into your midst, but vessels who know their imperfections well and glory in the work Christ does in brokenness and poverty. You are receiving a family, who like many of you, will be far removed from their immediate family, but who long for deep relationships with you through bonds of blood found only in Christ. We pray for these relationships to take shape as we live out together the mission of Christ in our world, serving the broken, the marginal, the hurting and those in our midst in need of revival.

We pledge to you our hearts and minds, our energies and passions, and our love and grace as we surrender our lives to the shaping hands of Jesus, taking our identity and mission from his life alone. We commit our family to your care and our souls to your keeping while looking forward to hearing of Jesus' story in your lives.

We are indebted to the work of Ken and Nancy and the wonderful legacy of faithful service, pastoral care, rich preaching and unifying grace they leave behind. They can never be replaced.

Thank you for the trust you are placing in us and for the love you have showered upon us. We praise God for the ways he has loved us through you and delight in the ways he will continue do that for many others through each of you in the years ahead.

Our children are excited for this new chapter, although our three-year-old Claire is concerned about the move for, "The house is too heavy, mommy."

We can't wait to see you soon. Rest in God's love and relish in the plans God has for you, "plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you hope and a future." (Jer 29:11)

Love and blessings,
Rich and Heather
